

Joy of handwriting: Western Calligraphy from BC to now (5/12)

The sharing session “Joy of handwriting: Western Calligraphy from BC to now” and the calligraphy workshop co-organized by Miss Vanness Yan and Library was successfully held on 5 December. Thank you for your active participation and continued support. Please look forward to our forthcoming activities and visit our “photo gallery” for this wonderful event

Library Special Exhibition (9/12~20/12)

The Library is holding a special exhibition with a highlight on Graphic Design books from 9 December to 20 December 2019. Welcome all especially users with interests in graphic design to join us. We will continue to hold comprehensive exhibitions of various disciplines. Please keep an eye on our Library website.

Library Service

To provide a comfortable environment for the library users, we have arranged the cleaning of the beanbags and bookshelves areas in early December. Please enjoy your time in Library.

Electronic Resources (New Airiti App)

In the past November, Airiti had combined iRead eBooks and Airiti Library into the new app “Airiti Reader” which can be download in App Store or Google Play. Users can access to the Chinese electronic books as well as CEPS Chinese electronic journals and CETD Master and Doctoral dissertation through the new app. Please note that the first time login need to use the campus Wi-Fi for verification. Enjoy your time with our plentiful electronic resources.
